HyFlex Instruction Mode Update

Academic Senate Action:

Adopted: February 15, 2023

Final Disposition:

Transmitted to President: February 16, 2023

RECOMMENDATION:

The Academic Senate recommends the adoption of the following updates to the definition of HyFlex to go into effect in the fall semester of 2023.

All course contact hours prescribed by the course classification and units are delivered in person, synchronously, and asynchronously. Instruction is provided in the classroom, and for each class meeting, students may choose to attend in-person, synchronously online, or asynchronously online. Faculty may require students to attend up to 25% of class meetings in person, plus the final exam held during finals week. The dates of required in-person meetings must be included in the schedule of classes before students register for the class. Dates may only be changed with documented consent of all students enrolled in the class.
